CAPTAIN MARIA

IL CAPITANO MARIA

DIRECTOR: Andrea Porporati

Starring: Vanessa Incontrada

After ten years in Rome Maria Guerra returns home as captain of the Carabinieri. She has decided to leave the capital because she has realised that her older daughter needs her time and guidance, and she hopes that working as a provincial police chief will also give her enough time to look after her youngest son Riccardo. But there is also another reason! Ten years earlier her husband, a magistrate at the juvenile court, died in this town and Maria still has doubts about the cause of his death.

DETECTIVE MONTALBANO 1-32

IL COMMISSARIO MONTALBANO 1-32

DIRECTOR: Alberto Sironi
Starring: Luca Zingaretti

Based on the novel by the Italian writer and scenewriter Andrea Camilleri, the intriguing crime series "Detective Montalbano" stars Luca Zingaretti in the role of a Sicilian detective acting in the ancient, sunwashed Sicilian province of Ragusa as well as in the breathtaking surrounding countryside. Each episode of the series focuses on Montalbano's personal war against his professional ideals, his commitment to his beautiful long-distance girlfriend and his constant flirtation with the ultimate temptress, Italian cuisine, making this crime series one of the best product of contemporary Italian fiction.

THE BASTARDS OF PIZZOFALCONE

I BASTARDI DI PIZZOFALCONE

DIRECTOR: Carlo Carlei

Starring: Alessandro Gassmann, Antonio Folletto, Simona Tabasco, Gennaro Silvestro, Carolina Crescentini

This noir detective series is based on the novels of Maurizio De Giovanni and is set in a vivid contemporary Naples. After a serious case of corruption, the tiny Pizzofalcone police station, set in the old centre of Naples, is about to close. However, before this happens, the Police headquarters decides to rebuild a team in order to continue with routine work and sends some new officers, recruited from other districts. The team of five policemen gives immediately the impression to be improbable and at the outer fringes of legality, just like the colleagues they have replaced, from whom they inherit the nickname "I BASTARDI".

THE DAY OF THE SIEGE

11 SETTEMBRE 1683

DIRECTOR: Renzo Martinelli

Starring: Murray F. Abraham

September 11th is a watershed date; as Bernard Lewis, the contemporary world's foremost Islamic scholar never tires to remind us, the date coincides with Islam's deepest thrust into the very heart of the West. On September 11, 1683 three hundred thousand warriors hailing from every corner of the Empire sieged Vienna. Commanded by the Grand Vizier Kara Mustafa, to whom the Sultan of Istanbul entrusted the Prophet's banner. The deeply imbedded Origin of the Islamic rage which the West must now confront daily is to be found in what transpired on September 11, 1683.

IT'S MY TURN

ADESSO TOCCA A ME

DIRECTOR: Francesco Miccichè

Starring: Cesare Bocci, Giulio Corso, Ninni Bruschetta, Anna Ammirati

Twenty-five years ago, on 19 July 1992, less than two months after the Capaci bomb attack, the Mafia killed Paolo Borsellino. The judge was aware that he was "next" on the list, as he told his wife, but he believed that fear must always be accompanied by courage. If not, it becomes an obstacle that prevents things from moving forward. These are the words that introduce us to this intense biographical portrait: historical and human, epic yet intimate. The docufilm begins with the via D'Amelio bombing and through the reminiscences of Antonio Vullo - the only survivor of the attack - reconstructs a very complex story.

Daphne is a young girl in prison for theft. Within the walls of her confinement, she falls in love with Josh, another inmate. Males and females cannot mix at the juvenile detention centre where they are serving their time. As their love story develops and is nourished by secret letters and fleeting conversations through the bars that separate them, their prison sentences become much more than the denial of freedom. Fiore is a story about the strong desire of teenage love and its power to break any law.

THESE DAYS

QUESTI GIORNI

DIRECTOR: Giuseppe Piccioni

Starring: Margherita Buy, Marta Gastini, Laura Adriani,
Maria Roveran, Caterina Le Caselle, Filippo Timi

A country town. Between old walls, on nocturnal jaunts along the shore, in the enchantment of a brief trespassing in nature, we experience the life and expectations of four girls whose friendship is not born out of mutual interests or great ideals. They are tied together not by affinities but by habits, enthusiasms, contrasts and feelings cultivated in secret. Their connection is unique and unrepeatable, just like the few days they will spend traveling together, to escort one of them to Belgrade, where a mysterious friend and an improbable work opportunity are awaiting her.

Nicola, 40, is the owner of a factory he inherited from his father, on the brink of bankruptcy. Nicola is throttled by debts and banks, in Turin, a city plunged in the great economic crisis suffocating all of Italy. But he is proud and tenacious. He decides to solve his problems with no scruples, exactly like the finance companies trying to knock him out. His wife Laura is getting farther and farther. Instead of speaking frankly to Laura, he starts suspecting her. Everything collapses. Later on the firm, his marriage, and social success seem to go back to its place. But Nicola is keeping more than one secret...

A NIGHT IN FLORENCE

STANOTTE A FIRENZE

DIRECTOR: Gabriele Cipollitti

WITH: Alberto Angela

A "Night Look" at the world's most admired city of art: Florence. We also owe the city's artistic treasure to the last woman in the great Medici dynasty: Anna Maria Luisa. In the twilight of her life, she bequeathed the enormous artistic wealth created and collected by her family to the city of Florence so that all of the "Florentines and Foreigners" could enjoy it in the centuries to come. Without the courage and obstinate willpower of this woman, the Uffizi Gallery, Palazzo Vecchio, Medici Chapels and many other artistic wonders probably would not exist anymore... These marvellous places are an echo of a great period, a faraway past and a powerful family...

HAND GESTURES

IL GESTO DELLE MANI

DIRECTOR: Francesco Clerici

Velasco Vitali's famous dog sculptures, from wax to glazed bronze. Skilled artisans from the Battaglia Artistic Foundry in Milan reveal the ancient traditions of bronze sculpture making, unchanged since the 6th century B.C. Historic Italian sculptor Giacomo Manzù used to say that the sculpture is a hand gesture, a gesture of love. According to Professor Larry Shiner, «Art, as we understand it normally, is a European invention of just two centuries ago. Involving many hands and many minds, art, however, has always been a matter of collaboration».

POPE FRANCIS, CUBA AND FIDEL. A HISTORICAL VISIT

PAPA FRANCESCO, CUBA E FIDEL. LA STORICA
VISITA DI UN PONTEFICE VENUTO DAL SUD

DIRECTOR: Gianni Minà

Cuba is the Latin American country which has had 3 papal visits in the last twenty years, respectively that of John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis. This makes us realize the strategic importance and ideology that the Catholic Church has played in the Revolution. It was the Argentinean Pontiff, the Pope from the South, whose mediation was able to produce the much hoped for dialogue between Cuba and the United States discussed in our documentary. The merit is, without a doubt, due to his charisma.

DIRECTOR: Gabriele Salvatores

ITALY IN A DAY is the Italian edition, by Gabriele Salvatores, of a Ridley Scott project: we asked Italians to send us videos shot with any instrument (video camera, smart phones..) that were taken in the course of the 24 hours of October 26th, 2013. Desires, dreams, fears, anything they considered important or event, quite simply, what they saw from their house's window. It's an emotional diary, made of 44.197 videos, a census of emotions and thoughts of Italians, a secular confession, the desire to share one's feelings via images, a collective Italian psychodrama, at times gentle, angry, funny or desperate. But also a captivating reflection, a sincere and without intellectual filters, on the meaning of this shared journey on planet Earth.

CASE CHIUSE

DIRECTOR: Filippo Soldi

February 20, 1958, the “Merlin Law” is approved by the Italian Parliament declaring an end to an institution. The brothel or bawdy houses. Dino Buzzati compares the event to the burning of the Royal Library of Alexandria. The Bawdy house is an institution that has spanned over centuries and has gained different aspects and forms. In Italy, at least officially, this institution no longer exists, but in some countries it still does. Starting from the ruins of a bawdy house in Pompeii to the Artemis lights in Berlin, from the erotic papyrus at the Egyptian Museum in Turin to the giant Paradise of Girona, named the biggest brothel in Europe.

THE NIGHT OF THE HOLY SHROUD LA NOTTE DELLA SINDONE

DIRECTOR: Francesca Saracino

"The crime is accomplished". These words were said by Cardinal Anastasio Ballestrero, who at the time was "custodian of the Holy Shroud," just a moment after some samples of linen were cut out of the Holy Shroud. This investigative documentary film has nothing in common with the documentaries previously carried out and focused on the same subject. In fact, its purpose is to clarify the issue of the radiocarbon dating thanks to new and unpublished documents, through a narrative style that is reminiscent of the mystery and that gets closer and closer to a spy story.

THE GRACE OF THE WORD

LA GRAZIA DELLA PAROLA

DIRECTOR: Gianni Barcelloni

In this movie we discover the lives of the monks of the camaldolese benedictine monastery of Fonte Avellana, entrusted with an ancient monastic tradition. The reasons behind these radical choices are revealed through the particular point of view of a great Italian writer, Giorgio Montefoschi. The existential writings of the monks become an inquiry on faith itself, which these men have for centuries searched for between the walls and gardens of this hermitage, while contemplating and working with the grace of the Word of the Lord.

TOWARDS THE HOLY SEPULCHER VERSO IL SANTO SEPOLCRO

DIRECTOR: Luca Archibugi

One of Christianity's greatest mysteries, the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. The birth place of Christianity. With a 3D reconstruction of the architecture of the Basilica and its transformations throughout the ages, we can see the location of the crucifixion, death and resurrection of Christ. A journey marked by many mysteries which, without resorting to sensationalism, guides us to the intertwining of different cultures, depicted by the different Christian confessions. In this setting, the Franciscan mission represents a constant symbol of union between different people and religions, with the precise duty to watch over the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre, in the heart of the most disputed city in the world, Jerusalem.
