L'ORO DI SCAMPIA

L'ORO DI SCAMPIA

DIRECTOR: Marco Pontecorvo

Starring: Gianluca Di Gennaro, Giuseppe Fiorello

The story is inspired to Gianni and Pino Maddaloni which in 2000 brought Italy to the highest step of the podium at the Sydney Olympics, winning the gold medal in judo. Scampia is a modern suburb of Naples full of overcrowded and decaying buildings and where Camorra reigns over all, hiring youngsters as lookouts, drug couriers or hitman. Here there is the judo gym owned by Enzo and Lupo that struggle to keep the youngest far from temptations teaching judo. Enzo is stubborn and would never leave Scampia: even though the gym is not at all well seen by the local clans. Enzo's son, Toni, is the best scholar of the gym. And Toni will win that gold Olympic medal.

THE HIDDEN VATICAN

ALLA SCOPERTA DEL VATICANO

DIRECTOR: Luca Salmaso

Thanks to the Vatican Television Center cameras, this unique project introduces us to places where usually no one can access. An inedited Vatican shows its art, history, habits and curiosity unknown to most. The episodes are composed of original images, interviews with experts and leaders in the Vatican world (eg, the head of the Gendarmerie or the chief or director of the Swiss Guards of the Vatican Museums) and precious film footage to better cover the purely historical aspect of the story.

With the disappearance of the notion of getting and keeping a job for a lifetime, the concept of "replacing" becomes the norm. Let's imagine an unemployed man who would practice this "replacing" every day. So much so, that he would actually work beyond measure and his own way be a happy man. Our hero gets by taking on, for a few hours at a time, the roles of absentees who duck out from work for - more or less - serious reasons. Can being a replacement to fill the void left by others be fulfilling?
